

National Junior Honor Society
Application Essay
Fall, 2017

Due to Ms. Holloway - Monday, November 6.

The National Junior Honor Society recognizes students who encompass the traits of Leadership, Service, Character, and Citizenship. Using the definitions below and your Student Activity and Achievement Summary for guidance, elaborate on how your personal experiences demonstrate how you exemplify each of these four traits.

Citizenship: Being a positive contribution to a community. Making choices that do not infringe on the rights of others.

Character: Looking within to explore and elevate personal goals and commitments. Consistently making the right choices without need of recognition and regardless of outside influence.

Leadership: Accepting responsibility willingly and participating in improving what is and what will be by working with and on behalf of others.

Service: Demonstrating concern and acting for the betterment of others, the community, the nation, and the world.
